

LW Technical college graduation is June 27

Lake Washington Technical College (LWTC) is hosting its 2008 commencement ceremony on Friday, June 27, at 5 p.m. at the Meydenbauer Center in Bellevue.

This year LWTC will award more than 600 degrees and certificates. Dr. Sharon McGavick, LWTC president, will give the commencement address.

This year's student speaker is Susan Dailey, a resident of Bellevue who will graduate with an Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree in Social & Human Services and head to the University of Washington. She was named to the 2008 All Washington Academic Team and is a LWTC Associated Student Government officer.

The youngest graduates are

Woodinville residents Tucker Austin and Melanie Harmon, both age 18. Austin will graduate with an Electronics Technician AAS degree and Harmon will graduate with a Dental Assistant AAS degree. The oldest graduate is Kirkland resident Michael Brady, age 65, who earned a Fitness Specialist AAS degree.
