Bellevue student speaker at LWTC

Published: June 28, 2008 12:00 AM

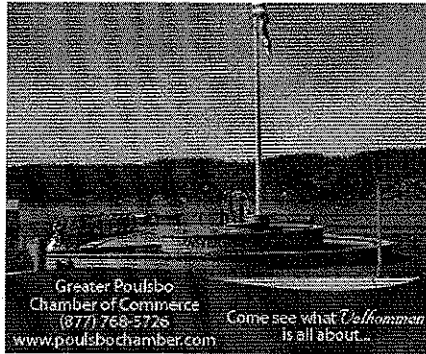

Susan Dailey, of Bellevue, was the student speaker at this years Lake Washington Technical College commencement.

The event was held Friday, June 27 at the Meydenbauer Center in Bellevue.

Dailey graduated with an Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree in Social & Human Services. She was named to the 2008 All Washington Academic Team and is a LWTC Associated Student Government officer.

Dailey also is an active community volunteer and helped develop the now annual LWTC Martin Luther King Jr. Day volunteer service fair.

She plans to attend the University of Washington's School of Social Work next fall. Her career goal is to be a director of a nonprofit agency that serves seniors.
